

Attention

First Time Buyers

This is the Right Time to Buy!

For First time house buyers and others thinking of moving house.

The government housing minister has recently recommended first time buyers to jump on the house ladder now whilst house prices and interest rates are low, to avoid the rush that will follow when markets pick up.

If you are considering following this advice ask us for a free written conveyancing quotation.

We do not have referral arrangements with estate agents and therefore do not have to charge clients extra to cover the cost of paying estate agents referral fees.

Try a Quote from us

We are a local practice with many years experience and you will find we give a personal and, we hope, efficient service.